Dear Mr. Boychuk,

On behalf of the Board and the staff of VC / German ALPA we would like to offer our most sincere condolences to you and the Russian people after the dreadful disaster of Saratov Airlines flight 6W-703.

We are devastated by the loss of so many people in this tragedy and would like to convey our full solidarity and our deepest sympathy with the victims and their families as well as the Russian aviation community.

We would like to emphasize the need to avoid any speculations as to what happened to the aircraft at present. Therefore we offer full assistance and support of our working group "Accident Analysis and Prevention" with experienced and accredited accident investigators in case you deem such assistance of use to you.

Please do not hesitate to let us know, if we can be of assistance above and beyond that.

Our thoughts are with the families and loved ones of the crew and passengers of flight 6W-703.

With best personal regards,

VEREINIGUNG COCKPIT/
GERMAN ALPA

PLS – 15.1/13
from February 13, 2018.

Dear colleagues Ilja Schulz and James Lee Phillips!

We are very grateful to you for your sincere condolences in connection with the air crash in our country. We appreciate your solidarity and your readiness to assist in the investigation of this disaster. We also fully share with you the position that it is impossible to make premature assumptions about what caused the catastrophe. This can be done only after a comprehensive analysis of what happened. At present, Oleg Bulenkov, our vice-president, who has the necessary knowledge and experience required in conducting such investigations, is involved in the investigation of this disaster.

Yours sincerely

President

M. Y. Boychuk
